I understand that this will be strenuous work with inherent dangers. I will allow Lakeshore Fellowship and the Volunteer Leader to supervise and direct my efforts in the best interest of the team members and the people we will serve.

I signify that I have medical insurance to cover any medical problems I may encounter and understand that Lakeshore Fellowship Church will have no responsibility for any accident or injury, including accident or injury as a result of my own negligence or the negligence of others, which may occur during or as a result of this volunteer engagement.

Further, I agree to each of the following commitments:

- I agree to cooperate at all times with the Team Leader concerning our work and life together including daily assignments, food, lodging, and transport and to stay with the team from beginning to end.
- I agree to abstain from offensive habits while on the mission. (The use of alcohol, tobacco and crude language is unacceptable to Christians in many countries.)
- Further, I hereby release and discharge the mission organizations which assisted in these arrangements, their employees, and officers, from all claims, demands, actions, judgments, and executions which I ever had, or may have, or which my heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns may have or claim to have, against such organizations, their agents, employees, and officers, and their successors or assigns for all injuries, real or personal, caused by, or arising out of, the above described mission service. I intend to be legally bound by this statement.
- I hereby acknowledge that by engaging in this mission, I am subjecting myself to certain risks voluntarily, including and in addition to those risks which I normally face in my personal and business life. Risks may include but are not limited to such health hazards as poor food and water, diseases, pests, and poor sanitation; potential danger from natural or manmade disasters; potential injury while working; and inadequate facilities, etc.
